PRIME

PRIME is a major information and analytic agency, focusing on real-time distribution of financial and business information

ABOUT THE AGENCY

PRIME's key products include real-time newswires, feature stories, industry-specific newsletters, sections with reliable analytical reports and financial estimates, estimates of economic policies, businesses, and different industries, as well as software for online electronic trade.

The agency produces several specialized newswires in cooperation with Dow Jones Newswires.

PRIME has developed its own database on Russian business entities, which includes information on 6 million companies, over 1,000 insurance firms, around 2,000 banks, as well as information on all Russian regions and 1,066 cities.

PRIME is authorized by Russia's Federal Service for Financial Markets to disclose information. The agency also distributes official publications by the Central Bank of Russia.

The number of visitors of PRIME's Web sites amounts to about 10 million per year, generating over 50 million hits.

PRIME

ENGLISH LANGUAGE SERVICE

Contains all major political and business news of the day updated in real time, as well as exclusive interviews and expert opinions

ABOUT THE PROJECT

PRIME's English-language service publishes around 100 news and analytical pieces per day. The articles are produced by Western-educated Russian translators, reporters and editors with years of experience in Western news organizations. Professional editing and adaptation of stories are done by English-language native speakers. The Russian-language and English-language wires are synchronized so that major news hit the wire almost simultaneously in Russian and English. Many stories and features are exclusive for the English-language service. Besides the online newswire, the English-language service also publishes the News Daily newsletter providing readers with comprehensive information about the major political and business events of the day in Russia and the CIS and the Russian Connection, Russian Power and MetalsMining weekly bulletins covering telecoms, electric power and metallurgy.

LIVE NEWSWIRE

The PRIME Live newswire gives a detailed picture of Russian financial and commodities markets and the macroeconomic factors influencing them. Major political events impacting the economy and markets are also reported on the wire. The PRIME Live newswire consists of about 100 news and analysis items daily under different categories, such as:

Business Wire

The Business Wire offers a complete picture of major business events and business-related political decisions that influence the markets and the investment climate in Russia and the CIS. It includes stories under different news categories such as: oil, gas, banking, the stock market, consumer goods and retail and agro commodities

Oil and Gas

The oil and gas sector has been the backbone of the Russian economy and the key source of money inflow into the state budget for years. The section includes data on production and export of hydrocarbons, as well as financial results of major oil and gas companies.

Metals and Mining

After oil and gas, metals are Russia's main commodity. This section covers major news on ferrous and non-ferrous industries, precious and strategic metals. It also covers the Russian diamond industry. In this section, you'll also find a comprehensive coverage of the Russian coal sector.

Telecommunications

Russia's vibrant telecommunications sector is attractive for many foreign investors. PRIME covers not only major Russian telecoms like MTS and VimpelCom but all Russian regional telecoms companies as well. The telecoms industry's ongoing reform, company results, mergers and acquisitions and foreign investment are the focus of this section.

Power Industry

The Russian power industry was reformed in 2008 and since then a multitude of independent companies, many of them privately-owned, have been operating in this sector. The section brings you operating and financial results of generation, transmission, and sales companies, highlights major M&A deals, and covers new developments in the sector.

Transport & Automobile

The Russian automobile sector is recovering after an economic slowdown. PRIME covers all Russian and CIS automobile producers with vital output and financial results released daily. This section also covers all transport-related businesses including railways, ports and aviation.

Financial Wire

The Financial Wire covers most important changes in the banking and insurance sectors. It also provides latest news on stock, foreign exchange and fixed-income market developments. Exclusive information from the Finance Ministry, major banks and financial institutes is reported daily in this section.
